In Support of Diversity and Fairness Campaign
Senate Statement No. 9

SUBMITTED BY:  Andria Rabenold ‘18, Senator
CO-SPONSORS:  Nicholas Pierce ‘19, Senator
ENDORSED BY:  Niru Murali ‘18, Executive Director of Student Life

WHEREAS, the University of Rochester strives to uphold six fundamental and interrelated communal principles: fairness, freedom, honesty, inclusion, respect, and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the communal principle of the 2015-2016 academic year is fairness; and,

WHEREAS, we, the Students’ Association Government, acknowledge that our student body is comprised of thousands of unique individuals whose diverse traits, backgrounds, and heritages should be celebrated by the university community at large; and,

WHEREAS, the Students’ Association Government would like to celebrate the diversity of the student population and promote fairness for individuals of various cultural, ethnic, and racial backgrounds as well as those with different gender identities, sexual orientations, ability statuses, and religious beliefs; and,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the University of Rochester Students’ Association Government supports the Diversity and Fairness campaign and related events hosted by the Paul J. Burgett Intercultural Center during the Spring 2016 semester; and

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the University of Rochester Students’ Association Senate directs the relevant Executive Branch members to provide support for the Diversity and Fairness campaign and related events as requested at their discretion.
